

A VISIT WITH HARRIET TUBMAN

“As Close As You Will Ever Be To Meeting Harriet Tubman”

BROWN TONES PRODUCTIONS

Visit Harriet Tubman - A Woman of Action

Karol and James Brown
As Harriet Tubman and Brother Ely

“A Visit with Harriet Tubman”

Karol is the revered, spunky, 92 year old Harriet Tubman, fondly known as Aunt Harriet

James captivates the audience with his smooth tenor voice singing Negro Spirituals

Together they bring stories and songs that warm your heart, tickle your funny bone, stimulate your imagination, motivate your spirit while educate your mind

Harriet Tubman, the most renowned conductor on the Underground Railroad. She was a leader, Civil War veteran, and civil rights activist. Her stories are empowering to all.

Testimonials

“Thank You for the wonderful performance you provided us here at Mill Creek Library. I told my library manager, I have never heard such a long period of applause for any program held at this library in the past; it was truly an indication of how much of an impact you both had on the audience.”

Mickey Gallagher, Children’s Librarian, Mill Creek Library, Mill Creek, WA

“I have never seen anyone else get a standing ovation from 6th Graders.” Pamela Wallace, Gray Middle School Teacher, Tacoma, WA

“A Visit with Aunt Harriet” was terrific for our series of Black History Month events. The performance was educational as well as entertaining, a show for all ages to see.” Ron Wright, Clover Park Technical College, Lakewood, WA

Ph 253-581-1954 | Fx 253-588-2067
10518 91 Ave. Ct. SW, Lakewood, WA 98498

<http://www.visitharrietubman.com>

Email: BrownToneStorytellers@gmail.com

Selected for 4 terms on the Humanities Washington’s Inquiring Mind Speakers Bureau, from 2000 to 2010

Sample Venues: Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, Tacoma, WA, Seattle Art Museum, Lockheed Martin, Bangor Naval Base, Old Liberty Theater, Ridgefield, WA, Wenatchee Performing Arts, Schools, Colleges, Churches, and Libraries.